Sir

In order to keep up a constant communication with me, and with the Service your aid, and as I have no small object to proprietor to this purpose; should any of the upon your Station capture an Enemy's ship about sixty & eighty Tons which will answer for an advice that you will cause her to be surveyed and valued by the proper Officers of different Ships, and employ her as such, sending her in for adjudication, and reporting to me the particulars of her Survey, and appraised value, that may direct the naval Authorities to pay the agents for her.

I have the honor to be
