Permanence 26th July 1814

Sir, Upon being joined by the ship of 'Princess' you will take the shipmaster's orders. And when the Dutch Mail Ship joins you, after receiving on board at Halifax Captain Barclay, you will direct the Captain of the 'Hercules' to proceed to Halifax for the purpose of making good the defects of that Ship, and at the same time to take under his protection any Trade which may be found to Halifax or to convey any Letters which may be here addressed to Rear Admiral Griffiths.
To Captain Jackson. I am &c Wm. Laidlaw (Signed) A. Buchanan
(This is delivered to Capt Jackson's order to be sent)

N. 4.

Permanence 26th July 1814

Sir, Notwithstanding my Order of yesterday date directs you upon falling in with the Majesty's Ship 'Armid' to give orders to her Captain to join me at Permanence, you will be pleased upon meeting with that Ship to order her Captain to join me forthwith in the (the)
