Bermuda 28 July 1864

Sir A telegraphic message from His Majesty's Ship Lacedaemonian having acquainted me that you had not gone on board that Ship for the purpose of proceeding to join and take the command of H.M. Ship Sutro as directed by my order of yesterday.

I inform you that in consequence of your neglecting to comply with my direction. I have appointed a Commander to the Sutro & that I shall not advise of your joining that Ship until my Lord's Commanding of the Admiralty to whom I have communicated upon this subject shall signify their pleasure for your so doing

Captain Charles Hall

I have the honor to be Sir
(Signed) A. Lockhart
