

To leave this evening and to depart to be off the next morning morning

Her Excellency
Lieut. General
Sir James Smith
Ye Ye Ye

I have the honor to be Sir
Yours Obedient Servant
A. Cochrane

St. Vincent, St. Vincent 12th Oct: 1814

Sir

I am directed by Vice Admiral Sir Alexander Cochrane to inform you that in consequence of the excess of work required at this Dock yard just now, he has ordered the Nymphe to refit at Demarica. And object is to take this Brigate with the Expedition and he is anxious that you would take measures for getting her ready as speedily as possible, without interfering with the fitting of the small vessels ordered by the Admiralty Her principal want is a complete caulking -

Her Excellency
Lieut. General
Sir James Smith
Ye Ye Ye
Jamaica

I have the honor to be Sir
Yours Obedient Servant
A. Cochrane
Captain of the Fleet

St. Vincent, St. Vincent
St. Vincent 7th Nov: 1814

Sir

Herewith you will receive an order to put yourself and 4th Ships and Vessels upon the Jamaica Station under my command a similar order was sent the late Rear Admiral Brown from the Chesapeake
The late Rear Admiral Brown having been directed by my Lord's former orders of the Admiralty to search for a port where the British Fleet might

She
of l

Dear