

letter
Nov 1814
the together
company
works
and
the signature
letter
that parent
an visions
the 1814
honorable
the expedition
point is ceived from having achorage
tilda
way
the delay
of

Commander
Sussalogue

Sir
I regret that your order of the 10th inst. which I gratified your self and my command not reach your hands

I have the honor to send you a duplicate of the same, as to the which you will continue to be carry into execution the duties the Leeward Islands command

J. C. Durham Esq
Rear Admiral of the Fleet
pe pe pe
I have the honor to be
A. Cockburn

Commander
Sussalogue 11 Nov 1814

Sir
I have to desire that no time may be forwards any such Troops as may arrive upon this station destined to join the under my command and I trust that you have already provided conveyance for the which are to bring on the West India and that the officer having charge of it will be directed after taking up the strength of the which is at Point a Pitre and Sussalogue this Island to call off St. Martin's and on board the company of this Regiment is stationed there

J. C. Durham Esq
Rear Admiral of the Fleet
pe pe pe
I have the honor to be signed A. Cockburn

Commander
Sussalogue 11 Nov 1814

Sir
I have the honor to be