

Barbedes leaving morning command vice in the of attached to the ce 1814
Admiral that he ly furnish the and which and to his
I am of the
the
to and the day if will be period for here I

Tenacious Port Royal 17th Sir, As it is found impracticable at this Port a sufficient quantity of shipping draft of orders required for the contemplated service in the neighbourhood of your station given to understand that such vessels might procure at Pensacola I have directed Capt of HMS Herald who is well acquainted with the country to proceed thither without a personal of time and communicating with you by you every assistance see his power and being provisions (if they cannot be heard) as suff quantity of flat floored vessels to the 3 to 4000 tons; as they are to navigate the Procheraine they must not draw more than fathoms or agreeably to the navigation of that shall upon an even keel & that if possible be capable of carrying each one hundred barrels For the furtherance of this object I have Capt. Millward to convey to you eight thousand dollars if he is further directed in the course of not being able obediently to communicate with you to carry these instructions (which are left open for his information) into full execution Capt. Gordon. (Signed) A. Boscawen Sea horse.

No 23. Tenacious Port Royal 17th Sir I having appeared officially yours that A. B. H. the Prince Regent in the name in the behalf of his Majesty has been pleased you to the name of a Rear Admiral of the Fleet of this Majesty's fleet; should you not have any nomination thereof from any quarter of the Admiralty you are hereby authorized To Geo. Cockburn Esq. for the receipt of this letter to Rear Admiral of the Fleet at the

To
Geo. Cockburn Esq.
Rear Admiral
of the Fleet