Sir,

Lieutenant Miller Agent for Transport at Bermuda having represented to me that he is very much inconvenienced and hindered in his duty for want of a place of residence contiguous to the Arsenal - you will be pleased to give directions for his occupying the house on Gool's Island in which Captain Cocket used to reside, but in any case direct Captain William Burnaby to appropriate about an four hands from the Arsenal to attend upon Lieutenant Miller; to be at his entire disposal and if the Lieutenant wishes it, to remain on shore upon the Islands.
