

No. 31

No. 31

Sir

Tonnant off Chaudes Eaux

25th January 1815

You will be pleased to send the Ship or Ship under your command that may be most in want of repair to New Providence, and to take the homeward bound Trade from thence Bermuda, to join the Convoy which is to leave the Port the 1st of April; and to have her Defects good: giving her Commander the necessary directions

Rear Adm. Cockburn

I have the

(Signed) A. Cockburn

Sir

Tonnant off Chaudes Eaux

25th January 1815

You will be pleased to acquaint the Commandant of Bermuda, that a Ship of War will give Convoy such Homeward bound Trade as may be sail from thence for England on the 1st of April

Commodore Evans

I have the

or the Senior Officer
His Majesty's Ships & Vessels. Bermuda

Signed A. Cockburn

Sir

Tonnant off Chaudes Eaux

25th January 1815

The Expedition against New Orleans having terminated unsuccessfully - I require the Americans taken from thence in the Ramilles to exchange for Soldiers of our Army who have fallen into their hands, I request therefore that you will send that you may have on board into the Dictator passage to join me should she not have sailed from otherwise on board of the Nymphe which ship will directed immediately to join you off that Port

Should it happen that the Nymphe does not the Havana before your departure from thence put the Prisoners on board the Talbot and Commanding Officers to remain at the