Sir

You will be pleased to cause such temporary ^{Buildings} beyond those already erected as may be required for the reception of the 3rd or Colonial Marines to be put up at Delany Island, out of such materials as may hereafter be appropriated to the Naval Works carrying on there.

Sir

As I deem it expedient for His Majesty's service that you should remain at Bermuda and call at Halifax for the purpose of settling and adjusting the public accounts. When you are ready to move from either of these places you will apply to the Senior Officer for a passage for yourself and servant

Wm Balch the Esq
Secretary &c.

I am Dear

Signed Alschmans

Acting Secy
Commodore
