

Lyme April 5th 1814

To the officer commanding the detachment of his Britannick Majesty's Marine forces now gone against the shipping lying near the mouth of Connecticut River

Sir,

To avoid the effusion of human blood is the desire of every honorable man,

The number of forces under my command are increased so much as to render it impossible for you to escape. I therefore suggest you the propriety of surrendering your selves prisoners of war by that means prevent the consequence of an unequal conflict which must otherwise issue. Captain Charles Harrison is the bearer of this dispatch & will receive your communication

I am Sir with sentiments of the highest esteem your most obedient servant

(Signed) Marsh Stg. Major Commanding the forces at Lyme Saybrook
