

and entire Command.

Upon these considerations I feel myself authorized to request that the immediate Command of the Ship be entrusted upon this Station be delivered up to me, the Said Donning is pleased that may, without delay make any arrangements, without which I will not be responsible for the consequences that may result from the absence of the Force of my first and last attempts, and the failure of the operation to be undertaken upon the arrival of the vessel shall not rest with me.

I am what already perceive

I shall find it the most difficult