Having received direction from the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to consider the limits of this station to be bounded by the Tropic of Cancer, and that all the service of Blockade, Convoy, Protection &c, applicable to the parts northward of it were to be conducted by you, I beg to make the same known to you, and to acquaint you that I shall ^{redirect} direct my cruises accordingly; I also beg to acquaint you that a large Convoy homeward bound, will sail from here on the 30th instant, under the protection of a Line of Battle ship, a large Frigate and two other Vessels of War, in order, that if you think it
