Secret

Admiralty Office

29 April 1914

Mr. 51.

Sir

I am commanded by my Superior Officers of the Admiralty to transmit to you a copy of a letter addressed by Earl Bathurst to Lieutenant General Sir John Sherbrooke, discussing the occupation of the Islands in the Bay of Papuanaguddy, on the arrival of the 102nd Regiment from Bermuda as Halifax and to signify their Lordships' direction to you to co-operate with the Lieutenant General in carrying these directions into effect.

I am at the same time
Vice Admiral
John Sir Alex. Mackenzie K.B.
