

to enter into an Armistice — I made thro him a Communication to Mr Munroe, the American Secretary of State in order to Ascertain the Sincerity of the pacific disposition of the President — In consequence of this step Brig & Gen Winder was Authorized by the American Government to discuss and Arrange an Armistice with such Person as I might Appoint; but that Officer having been exchanged, and having left the Province before the Secretary of States despatches for him Arrived, Another Officer was substituted in his place and was met for the above purpose at the Village of Champlain in the United States by Colonel Baynes the Adjutant General of the Forces on the 2^d instant — On the production of their respective powers, it appeared that Colonel Pinkney, the person substituted