

possible to destroy the Vessels building there, and I am in hourly expectation of hearing of his subsequent Movements.
I have not yet received any Official Account from Gen. [unclear] or Sir Jas. Geo. of the Attack on Oswego, but am momentarily expecting it — Sir James' next object will probably be the Enemy's Depot of Provisions in the Genesee River and at Sodus; —

In Order to secure the important Post of Michilimackinac against any Attack of the Enemy which I have reason to suppose he had Meditated early in the Spring — I have Caused during the Winter twenty five Battureaux to be Constructed in Notawasaga Creek on the South Side of Lake Huron, and by great