1 Do from the Grenadier Guards
1 Do with 1 Company of Artillery from the
1 Battalion of Royal Marines with a proportion of Artillery undertake.

In addition to the force which may have been placed under your orders previous to your departure from the Gironde, you will on your arrival at Bordeaux take under your command one Regiment of Infantry and one Company of Artillery which have been directed to proceed thither from the Mediterranean for that purpose.

The Account of the Force which will be thus placed under your command (and which is specified in the Margin) will sufficiently point out to you that you are not to engage in any extended operations at a distance from the coast.

In converting the particular objects of attack with the officers in command of the Naval parts of the Expedition you will freely express to him your opinion
