

You will not encourage any disposition which may be manifested by the Negroes to rise upon their masters.
The humanity which ever influences His Royal Highness must make him anxious to protect against a system of Warfare which must be attended by the atrocities incapable of any connection of such a description. If however any individual Negroes shall in the course of your operations join you or give you assistance and if you have reason to believe that they would in consequence be exposed to the vengeance of
