

under his orders 300 able and ordinary seamen, including 50 of the crew of the Royal Oak, the complement of that ship having been reduced here to 450 men only instead of 400 as has been the case with some other ships.

I have the honour to be

Sir

Your most obedient humble servant

Yours

Admiral