

which being so desperately wounded as to make the vessel unserviceable. I hope soon sending her to Halifax & the vessel unserviceable.

You power to send another ship to relieve her. which I suppose the Intymen should do decide whether she arrives. at least till you further pleasure is known.

I leave the honor to be Yours very Obedient Servant
Charles F. Felt

P.S.

The Brevender, being with Capt. Capel. was occasioned by that ship having been obliged to come here for a supply of Provisions from off her Station at Sandy Hook - which were furnished her by La Hope.
