The present number of the Creek Nation, that are called Warriors, and are friendly to the English, and now ready to take up Arms, may be about two thousand, seven or eight hundred; ~~according to their~~ ~~accounts of about one thousand more, near Pensicola,~~ which are by this time ^{trafice} ~~on their way to join the~~ main body, ~~and may be expected there in about~~ ~~three or four weeks.~~

The names and numbers of the Tribes, I give according to information I have received from several Quarters, ~~and also learned from you~~ ~~rough sketch of the course of the river off which~~
~~are the situation of the different lower towns. - The~~ ~~number of Warriors. I am by the way the different~~
~~Persons appeared, are stated at the very least calcu-~~ ~~lation. These names, I have written in~~
~~to be easily embodied in eight or ten weeks so as to~~
~~be able to act in concert with any British force that~~
