

Cochrane Papers MS2344

(2)

Order to Cochrane

10 Oct. 1814 (continued)

Rowland, Money and Ramsay who had charge of Divisions under him, and to Captain Robyns of the Royal Marines, as well as of all the other officers and Men both Seamen and Marines employed on this Service, for which as a farther mark of this approbation they have been pleased to make the following promotions, viz^t Captain Sullivan the Senior Commander to the Rank of Post Captain, Lieut James Scott Aid-de-Camp to Rear Admiral Cockburn to that of Commander, and Mr. Jackson Masters Mate of the Tonnant to the Rank of Lieutenant, and Captain Robyns of the Marines to the highest Rank of Major.

I am
Sir

Your most obedient
Humble Servant

John Barrow.