

I shall have you so very know how much in half an hour chance of letter

ers with inform ations and how

Jonathan has brought forth his of this Bay and puzzled to cut in at all Points to recoil on

dear Sir, your our questions, that were I have had done his best, but I had more power at my disposal more should have been done but as it is, this last month has ~~cost~~ cost the enemy around us more than a million of Dollars, and I have his great command fast where it can do no harm but to its Friends, and is exposed to certain destruction whenever force enough arrives to attack it. Capt. Morris will probably have to deliver to you my dispatches indeed I hope it may so happen as he can give you every particular respecting the situation of this Flotilla ^{of the} Force requisite or best adapted for destroying it. The British Ships are in my opinion the first & principal requisite, the Merines

Must show you chose us to act on the subject of these Antislavery Men, much will turn on this —

I hope you will be gratified at learning by my public letters how uncommonly and unexpectedly well the Blacks have behaved in the several Engagements in which they have now joined with us, & though one of them was shot & died instantly in the front of the others at Cangas
