

is Lord Poer. Our latest Paper is to the 17th of June.

Bonaparte had embarked at 1 P.M. for Iba & every thing was going on the Continent even faster than could have been hoped or expected.
Dwellington & Lord Harrowby continue to be our Ministers at the General Congress, and the latter ~~was~~ ^{is} to remain as our Ambassador in Paris.

them embarked in the Albion in line with some of our own Marines, they are strongers and in anxious hope and more trust worthy than we have you, the British we sure they will not desert remain here as I am sorry to say we have fully & truly yours many instances of our Marines walking over to the Enemy Y. C. B. W. H.

The fatigues we have undergone here & the sudden changes of the weather from excessive heat to coolness has tried our Constitution little, I have been unwell but am now better again. Capt. Ross however of this ship has been suffered so much that I have been obliged to give him leave of absence to

I replenished at before shall not require quantity of water in mbers, which was my at St Michael and that it was not in made.