

our Country grows under the weight of its the Country grows under the weight of its expense and the dreadful annual expense necessary to maintain the war scarcely have where without the support of the middle class of society - it is hard to see the middle class in the same manner as scarcely a family in England that does not mourn the loss of a father or brother - on Thursday the 9th in the morning the 9th in the morning I went to to London, I saw some particulars of the news and found that it is to be sent to the London Convention a detachment of 1000 from Portsmouth has been ordered to be sent to the 10th column having informed me that the opportunity would offer to send them for the moment I went to the office and which is stated
