

to take every possible opportunity of disseminating amongst them the Proclamations of the Commander in Chief which are herewith transmitted to you

Whenever you have collected so many of these Prisoners as ten you are to stand into this Anchorage for the purpose of putting them on board the Albion

You are also whilst employed on this Service to be extremely Vigilant / particularly by night / to intercept any Coasting Trade which the Enemy may attempt yet to keep up by creeping along Shore in small Vessels and you will use your discretion as to endeavouring to cut out or destroy any Vessels