Whereas the Captain of His Majestys Ship Albion has represented to me that Admiral The Right Honourable Sir J. B. Boscawen Bart. and M.B.
Lieut. Commander in Chief on this Station did give leave to Lieutenant Wilson Brady to leave the Albion or of whatever Ship may be ordered to proceed to England on his private Affairs, and that the said Lieutenant Wilson Brady has now been absent from the Albion more than Six Weeks and that the period of his return is extremely doubtful and therefore requesting

I would I would order an Officer to perform
