

... as it expressed in a forcible manner the sentiments I had ascribed to you It increases my wish to have before long an opportunity to present you personally the assurances of the high consideration and perfect esteem, with which I have the honor to be

To His Excellency Rear Admiral Sir Cockburn, on board His Britannic Majesty's Ship
Marlborough

Your Excellency's Most faithful and most Obedient humble servant
(Sd)

And: Daschkoff -

P.S. I take the liberty to introduce to your protection Mr. Wm. R. Swift son of the Russian Consular Agent for the District of Columbia who is to sail on board of the Ship Herman Horn Master, and to add, that if you should be disposed to show him any favours they will be conferred on deserving people who are fully ^{capable} of appreciating the generous policy of the English government; he will have the honor to hand you a parcel of news papers. By forwarding the letter here enclosed for London, I will be much obliged to your Excellency.

Sir

Harlem, New York 21 May 1843

The enclosed letter marked A contains a statement and complaint from John Mason Esq.
Commissary General of Prisoners of War, on the subject of the American Castle Brig Analostan not being permitted to proceed on the voyage proposed from the Chesapeake to Jamaica
