

me the Dragons Tender. We left the Looe at one o'clock and in a few hours arrived at Benedict, here party of Regulars were stationed who fled on our approach, leaving several muskets, knapsacks, and part of their camp equipage behind them, they also left a six pound which was spiked - The Saboteur deserted the town and removed their effects - We found a store containing about three hundred and sixty heads of tobacco, leaving Lieutenant Titmorris (an active zealous officer in the Dragons Tender to protect the Store from the Enemy. I pushed

See next pg 157
 for missing copy