Obliged to detail has rendered my narrative extremely prolix, but I must yet trespass on your patience to assure you of my fullest approbation of the active, obedient, and zealous conduct of every Officer and Man under my orders -

I received from Captains Brown, Lumley & Watt every assistance I could expect from gallantry, zeal, and hearty co-operation, the same feeling animated Captain Carter of the Marines on the occasion, and on every other where his services have been required conducted himself like an active, able, and judicious Soldier.
