

fully to my satisfaction, and I am happy of again having this opportunity of bringing Mr Pearson's services under your notice. - On every occasion where the Marines were landed Lieutenant Hawkins commanded the advance, his active zeal, and and intrepid conduct justified my so employing him, at the same time allow me to assure you that the officers & Marines belonging to the Albion, Loire, & Narcissus acquitted themselves with the utmost credit.

You will be happy to hear that the Colonial Corps conducted themselves with the utmost
