

174

91

they again
 the ship's leaving
 and fast
 I thought
 right and
 to a place where I saw
 miles below
 it be induced
 being calm
 to observe the
 and up the
 ting of ord
 boats, and to be obliged which I imagine
 the injury
 accompanying being which
 hours,
 the only person
 wain of the lost a leg
 the beard
 of

If this will be able to give you any further information you may deem necessary, and whose cordial co-operation during the time we have been together merits my warmest approbation.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant
 James Thos Brown Captain