

May for this service, he rendered me the greatest assistance in getting the ships to the different stations within the River, and when the storming of the fortified Hill was contemplated, he hastened to my assistance with a Reinforcement of Seamen and Marines, and I should consider myself wanting in candor and justice did I not particularly point out <sup>to you</sup> the high opinion I entertain of the enterprise and ability of this valuable Officer, not only for his conduct on this occasion, but on the very many others on which I have employed him since with me in the Chesapeake.

I have the Honor to be

Sir

Yours very faithful and

Most Obedt. Humble Servant

Vice Admiral

The Honble Sir A. Cochrane Kt.

Commander in Chief

Gloekburn

Mar adm.

Sea Sea Sea