Being charged for the present with the arrangements for conducting the Service on the Coast of North and South Carolina and Georgia

I have to request, you will by the first opportunity which may offer to you of safe conveyance to Bermuda give me such general Information respecting these Coasts - the strength of the Enemy on their Shores, and the Force you judge necessary for effectually blockading them; as your late Cruise may have put you in possession of, specifying also the particular Points (if any) which American Ships generally make on approaching these Coasts from distant Voyages.

I transmit herewith some late General Orders to be diffused amongst
