

will, in Obedience of your Directions to me respecting her, proceed to Barbours with Comvy on Thursday morning next.

Your Order to me of the 18th September, left it optional with me to go from hence to Halifax, for the Purpose of shifting my Flag to the Bullwark, the subsequent Communication however which I have received from you of Course place me so doing now quite out of the Question, but as I am anxious to move into a Ship so very far preferable for me on every Consideration to the Albion, should you not have already done it, as I understood you to have intended? I beg you will permit me to order her joining me immediately for the purpose.

Admiral Malcolm well of Course explain to you personally the Arrangements he agreed to, prior to his quitting the Chesapeake, for an Exchange of all Prisoners made ^{on} either side during the Operations against Washington and the Reconnoissance of Baltimore, it is therefore only necessary
