

Albion at Bermuda

The 26th October 1844

In consequence of your request that the Letter with its enclosures which you transmitted to me might be laid before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, I have considered it right to forward them to the Commander in Chief for that purpose, as no Letter from Subordinate Officers in any of the Naval Departments can with propriety be transmitted to the Admiralty excepting through him.

Mr. G. Rimmer

Master Attendant

Bermuda Dock Yard

Albion at Bermuda

The 26th October 1844 - at 8 AM

A general signal to prepare weekly accounts was made on the Evening of the 24th instant, and yesterday morning at 7 AM a general signal was made to bring them to the Ship bearing my Flag, and although this latter signal was again repeated to the Comptrolers particularly, I have nevertheless not been able hitherto to procure the weekly account from that Ship; I have therefore
