

French Passengers, and as this ship is of 435 Tons Burthen, it is presumed she will accommodate all those referred to in your letter.

W. Latour

Philadelphia

I have the honor to be Sir

Yours of Cockburn Rear Admiral

Albany in the Chesapeake the 10 December 1811

In reply to the letter which you addressed to Mrs. Admiral Sir Alastair Cockburn under date the 20 September last, I have to inform you that having this day signed a Passport for the ship Reparateur to proceed from Baltimore to France with French Passengers and as that ship is of 435 Tons Burthen it is hoped may prove to send a Pass for your ship also, but I have no Doubt Yourself and Family as well as the other Families alluded to in your letter may be perfectly accommodated in the Reparateur

W. Sainte Genieve

Philadelphia

I have the honor
to be Sir

Yours of Cockburn Rear Admiral