

continuing longer in that Station will be likely to prove more disadvantageous than advantageous to the Service.

I send by this opportunity another Officer to do the duty of Purser of the Andromeda until the Commander in Chief's pleasure respecting this vacancy can be ascertained, and have to desire you will send Mr. Hulse to join the Ship again by the first opportunity. His coming to me.

To
Lieut. F. Cunningham
Commodore
Hermes

I have the honor to be Sir
Your most obedient humble Servant
Signed
G. Cockburn Rear Admiral

To Whom in the Chesapeake 11 Dec 1814

In answer to your Letter which I have just received, I have to acquaint you that on Enquiry I find there is already an adjutant to the Battalion of Marines to which you belong, it is therefore out of my Power to grant your Request.

It appears to me as Time Officers are to remain at Longue, that the Disposition