

Sir

Albion, Lynnhaven Bay

14th December 1844

I shall wait in the Offing about 1/2 E from the Light House, 48 Hours, in hopes of being joined by you should you however miss me you will proceed with all possible Expedition with the Ships under your Orders according to the accompanying Rendezvous, but looking for me in the first instance off Charleston as you pass that Latitude

I am

To

Sir

Captain Barric

Whitby

Diagon

Your very faithful

Humble Servant

G. Cockburn Rear Admiral

Albion in

Sir

The 14th December 1844

In the Event of Lieutenant Robert Ansell of His Majesty's Ship Havannah being exchanged or sent back to you by the Americans, I have to desire he may not be permitted to return