

to his duty as Lieutenant of the Havannah until he has been tried by a Court Martial for having on or about the of last an defiance of my Order of the 20th July 1844 landed on a part of the Enemy Shore different from that to which he was ordered by Captain Barrie the Senior Officer then conducting an Expedition within the Rhappaham on which Service Lieutenant Ansell was employed, and owing to which disobedience and the improper manner of his landing, himself and the Surgeons Assistant he permitted to accompany him fell disgracefully into the hands of the Enemy

Captain Hamilton

Off
Ship Havannah

I am de (Signed)

G. Lockburn Rear Admiral

Albion

Sir

the 14th December 1844

In consequence of the Letter you have transmitted me from the Senior Lieutenant of the Havannah