

per Anna Maria

Albion at sea

379

Sir

December 24th 1814

I have to desire you will forward to me by the first vessel coming to join me the following Marine clothing, viz. four hundred suits for Privates, thirty five Sergeants and thirteen Drummers, or such proportion thereof as you may be able to procure from the stores at Bermuda, for the use of the second Battalion of Marines which is now acting with me, and if necessary Captain Piddle now at Bermuda will sign Receipt for the same on being required so to do

Commander A. F. Evans

I have the honor to be

Yr

Yr

Yr

Yr

Yr

Yr

Bermuda

G. Cockburn Rear Admiral

Albion off Cumberland

Sir

Island 25th Jan^y 1815

I have received your Letter of this date, and in reply acquaint you that His Majesty's Sloop Peacock which my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have been pleased to appoint