

have rather an officer or storekeeper of some description to deliver those small articles as they are required and to be responsible to him for the stores that are constantly coming in and going out the warehouse — a navy storekeeper would be very desirable on this Station at present and be a relief to the commanding officer as well the agent.

The Hon^{ble} Mr. Jones

Secretary of the Navy
Washington

I have the Honor to be
Sir your Obedt. Serv^t

Chas^r Gordon