Dear Sir,

I beg leave to inform you that my signals are very incomplete — you refer'd me to Mr. Hornum, & from him I learnt they were not yet completed —

He shew'd me the manuscript of Commodore Bannbridge & Capt. Morris & requested me to take copies of such as I wish'd which I did, but they were incomplete & required explanation — I have neither a Private signal or a number to my own ship or that of any other ship of our service —
As I have an opportunity of
