

receiving all the signals made by the enemy, If I could get a copy their General Signal Book for of which Capt Morris mentioned with the other signals, I should it in my power to test the correctness of those in our possession, well as to ascertain their movements in the Bay.

I have the honor to be very respectfully

Sir, Yr^{ts} serv^t
Chas Gordon

The Hon^{ble}

William Jones

Secretary of the Navy

Washington