Capt. Charles Morris,
U. S. Navy. Present.

Navy Department
Sept. 4th 1813.

Sir,

You are hereby appointed to preside at a Court of Enquiry, to be held, on board the U. S. Sloop Buffalo, at New Castle Delaware, for the purpose of investigating the facts and circumstances, attending the attack, made by the U. S. Flotilla, commanded by Samuel Angus Esq., Master Commandant in the Navy of the U. S. on the Enemy's Sloop of War, Hunter, and the boats of that vessel and her consort, near Cape May, on the 29th July last; and, in particular, to enquire into the conduct of the Commanding, and other Officers of said Flotilla, on that occasion; and into the cause of the loss of Gun Boat N^o 121, commanded by Sailing Master Shead, captured by the enemy on that day, and finally, to report to this Department, the proceedings and opinion of said Court, in relation to the several matters submitted. The other Members of the Court, are R. F. Spence, Esq. Master Commandant, and Lt. G. C. Read, who have been duly notified to attend.

I am, Sir, respectfully,
Your obedient Servant

W. Jones.
