

to have the assistance of the Navy, in order to procure to have statement of articles furnished them. I have been compelled to refuse to have any more of the prime timber, without your authority. but two pieces of planks, for gun carriages, which I delivered today.

I have the honor to be Sir, Your obedient servant

John Capron

Honble
William Jones
Secy of the Navy