

most of them in Irons, (all of which has a fatal tendency). Seventeen are returned, as in the Hospital, making in the whole Eighty five, I know not what has become of the remainder but I shall be better informed in the morning yesterday Mr. Frasier arrived from St Michael, he came over in an Open Barge, with 30 men for the flotilla, he captured a 74 and two Schooners a few miles below Sandy Point, and above Annaholis, they had been for two days off St Michael, I suppose to hear of our Barge but finding them safe, they proceeded up the Bay, they have taken a number of Craft set fire to them in the night, the weather has been bad all day & I have no news from below. I have no certain news of my look out
