

Tobacco, the militia according to custom appeared after all was over - The negroes it would appear, flock to the from all quarters; I have advised a number of persons in Calcut to get their negroes off, and promised them to move down with the flotilla in order to cover and protect them when doing it, and to be a check upon the Black Gentry - at the Calcut deserves nothing from us, yet I conceive it a duty we owe our Country and am sure it will meet your approbation.

I send you a small sketch of the mouth of the River, and the position where the enemy lay yesterday morning, the 3 Schooners & 5 boats at Carroll's and am respectfully your O^b Serv^t
