

Capt's Letters July 16 Aug 31 1813 (page 8)

- Aug 24 Gordon Balt. - Mr. Clagett one of owners of COCKET requested she be returned immediately to prepare her for sea. She requires recoppering and refitting for contemplated service.
- Aug 27. Gordon Balt. - Mr. Chas. Kalkner owner of REVENGE requesting her release in one week. Wants to return all vessels to owners and prepare for the prospect of CONSTITUTION's departure.
- Aug 27 Morris Annapolis - Enemy in same situation as last letter except MARYBOROUGH down Bay. They are concentrating on eastern shore - several attacks by largest small vessels. Yesterday returned from enterprise of this type against St. Michaels, at which place several vessels building and at anchor. Men remain healthy.
- Aug 27 Morris / Annapolis - Re request to return seamen and marines to Washington - Enemy could attack but he believes he will not - although opinion in city differs - Wants to return to attend to ship - in last 2 days symptoms of fever have appeared at Ft. Mifflin which is peculiarly unhealthy in Sept.
- Aug 28 Tingey / Navy Yard - Recommendations on size of ordnance and number of rounds per gun - Glossary stuff.
- Aug 29 Gordon / Baltimore - outrage at claims of owners of schooners for reimbursement for wear and tear.
- Aug 30 Morris / Washington - transmitting list (not there) of crew req'd for ADAMS when reduced to a corvette.