

Jones's
Summary

Baltimore Sep. 17. 1851
Joshua Barney

Inform that Mr. Beatty
is about purchasing the Galley --- name of her Commander, Mr. Dan-ners - leave to names for ders Wm. Martin, John Ridel Daniel Moran, is fearful the appointment of Mr. Doran will not ensure Capt. Gordon give him of the guns - leaving an officer & crew only in a miserable vessel and will never be anything but an

Secretary of the Navy

William Jones

Inform that Mr. Beatty
is about purchasing the Galley
name of her Commander, Mr. Dan-ners. Leave to name for
ders Wm. Martin, John Ridel
Daniel Moran. Is fearful the appointment of Mr. Doran as will not ensure Capt. Gordon given him possession of the guns leaving an officer and men on it is a miserable vessel, and will never be anything but an expense. Hears that the second Galley is to come round, wishes he could give satisfaction respecting these, 5 may be launched next week, 3 others not planned has not rec'd either Bells screws or locks to the 24
lb. carronades, supposed to have been left by mistake, has delivered
the commission to Mr Rutter, & the warrants to the different officers.

Washington

Hears that the second Galley is to come round. Wishes he could
give satisfaction respecting
these, 5 may be launched next
week. 3 others not planned
has not rec'd either Bells
screws or locks to the 24
lb. carronades, supposed supposed to have been left by

mistake, has delivered
the commission to Mr
Rutter & the warrants to the
different officers