

to ship such men as may be had, of which, I am informed many may be got. I have not yet been able to procure from the foundry, either, stools or grape shot, altho I have not ceased to press Mr ~~Dorsey~~ every day, we shall want 8 more locks - every thing else is progressing. The barges still on the stocks, three very backward.

I am Sir with respect your Ob^d Serv^t

John A. B. Arney